

Greening Our Future Events

Solar and batteries — is now the time?

Tuesday 20 February, 7-8.30pm

Langwarrin Community Centre
2 Lang Road, Langwarrin

Independent facts and advice from an Alternative Technology Association expert. Learn about tariffs, technology and the best system for your needs.

Healthy soil for happy plants

Saturday 3 March, 1-3pm

Frankston North Community Centre
26 Mahogany Avenue, Frankston North

Learn how the microbes, bacteria and fungi in your soil work together to feed your plants. Tips on growing strong, healthy and pest resistant plants.

Clean Up Australia Day

Sunday 4 March

Visit: cleanupastraliaday.org.au

Help keep Frankston City clean and beautiful by volunteering at a local park, beach or bushland reserve near you.

Earth Hour: nature after dark

Saturday 24 March, 7.30-9.30pm

Paratea Flora and Fauna Reserve
Paratea Avenue, Frankston South

Join the local Ranger to stargaze and spot nocturnal animals. A special way to celebrate Earth Hour.

Junior explorer activities

Friday 30 March – Sunday 15 April (School holidays)

Visit: visitfrankston.com

Explore a range of natural reserves with family-friendly activities. Small booking fee applies.

War on waste tour

Friday 13 April, 9.30am-1pm

Bus departs and returns to central Frankston, location provided on registration. Visit local sites Replas and Frankston Regional Recycling and Recovery Centre to learn about how waste is recycled and turned into useful products.

RACV Wild Bytes: stories from your backyard

Saturday 21 April, 1-2.30pm

Langwarrin Hall
1/185N Cranbourne Road, Langwarrin

Wildlife Victoria shares ways to care for wildlife in your own backyard including injured birds and animals, possums, swooping birds, safe fruit tree netting, attracting wildlife and more.

Indigenous Nursery Open Day

Saturday 5 May, 9am-1pm

Frankston Indigenous Nursery
7 McMannis Way (off McCulloch Avenue), Seaford

Discover your local community nursery and create a beautiful native garden, a haven for birds and other wildlife. For activities on the day, visit: frankston.vic.gov.au

