

Announcing a special KCA autumn evening family celebration...

Early evening along the Kananook Creek Corridor in autumn is a serendipitous place, and what better way to celebrate this together down by the Creek.

Highlights

LATEST NEWS

On Seaford's new Indigenous Botanic Garden and outdoor environmental education centre

DISPLAYS

Audio visual display by KCA and displays by local community groups including Kananook Creek Canoe Club

LOCAL HISTORY

Ten Stories of Frankston Historical Display

AUGMENTED REALITY

STORYTELLING

DEMONSTRATION

BY APPERIATON

THE ALLAN & YVONNE SISSON STORY

MUSIC

By charismatic jazz pianist, maestro Steve Sedergreen.

NARELLE DEBENHAM'S NATURED KIDS

Interactive Learning - Come along and learn about some of the local inhabitants that will live in the Seaford Botanic gardens. Can you name some of the tiniest beneficial bugs that can be found in local natural reserves? Try your hand at making one for FREE

MEET DR. JILL ORR YOUNG

From Creating Magical Spaces who designed the original Concept Plan for the Botanic Garden in 1997

Thursday 4th March

5pm - 7 pm

@Talbot Hall Seaford
Community Centre

FREE EVENT

Coffee and tea available